MINSTREL PLANNED - FEBRUARY !

Bobby Wise To Direct

Plans for a tremendous Armstrong Minstrel Show are under way and from the way things look it's going to be a grand one.

The Minstrel will be held on February 24-25-26. The seats will be $1.00 to $1.50. If successful it may be taken to nearby towns for benefit purposes.

Mr. Bobby Wise, who has had much experience, has been chosen to direct it. Jo Ann Durrence will direct the dance routines and Julian Silvers is taking care of the stage management.

Silvers stated at the present time pianist, boys and girls of the chorus, and voc lists are the main need. Also needed are people for art and publicity work. To really make this big more applications are needed. All interested apply to Julian Silver. The first practice will be held Tuesday night, January 21 at 7:30 PM in the Armstrong Auditorium.

SURPRISE!

Geechee To Appear In Merry Month Of May

The Geechee Staff is hard at work on the '47 annual. This year because of war shortages and higher prices the annual will be much more costly to produce.

Assignments have been given out by the editor, Charles Williamson and up-to-date reports are given at each meeting by the respective departments. The work is progressing as fast as possible and they hope it will be out in May. On the staff is Donald Austin, Business Manager, Beverly Beecher, Managing Editor.

DEBATING GETS HOT AS NEOPHYTE TEAM FORMS

Mr. Orsin Beecher announced that Armstrong will be represented by a debating team this year.

Arrangements are being made to engage Emory, Agnes Scott, U. of G., and the Savannah Extension in a debate on the National Topic of the year - "Should Labor Have a Voice in the Management of Industry."

Mr. Beecher further stated that Williamson, Nedwink Fitzsimmons, Silver, Brown, and Austin were candidates for the team and anyone who desired to participate could contact him for try-outs.

STUDENT SENATE

At the last meeting of the Student Senate there was a harsh disagreement over the feasibility of making assemblies compulsory for all students. After much discussion this proposal was voted down by the slim margin of one vote.

The students of Armstrong obviously do not wish to be compelled to come to assemblies. The Student Senate should not be able to compel them to do anything without their consent, and yet the Senate could have voted on that and no one would have known better until too late.

Of the various clubs and organizations at A.J.C. I can only say one thing. You elected these representatives, so see to it that they follow the majority of your organization.

WHERE IS YOUR SCHOOL SPIRIT

Have you been to a basketball game lately? We have one of the best teams this year that Armstrong has ever had. So far they have played nine games, losing none. surely this team deserves more support from the school than it has been getting.

At the last Homecoming Game there were approximately eighty students present out of the four hundred some-odd that are now attending Armstrong. Why was this?

We all recognize the fact that Hunter Field is a good distance out and hard to get to if you don't have a car, but there is always someone with a car, who would be glad to give you a ride.

Irate Coed: "Hey what're you following me for? Didn't you ever see anyone like me before?"

Fish: "Yeah. But I had to pay a quarter."

Jitterbug talking to her dress: "Skirt if you are going with me hang on around the curves."

AN...you lucky followers of the lamp of knowledge, you studious Chillun' of Savannah, take time from your research in the fields of human endeavor... and listen...even as our basketball team has been winning glorious victories in the name of our Alma Mater...so again something wonderful is here...something of which all the students can be proud.. "The Inkwell Bulletin". Yes, you fortunate peasants will have the honor of reading the 'trash', we misfits put out. We have but one aim in publishing this worthy paper this is to fill up space. We shall commit no Plagiarism and shall copy only from the best people. We are as interested in the welfare of the school as you and shall make this issue a success. Our political platform is "Every family should have one", and we intend to back it up. We know that you will treasure each edition of our paper... and we offer free to to each person who can read it twice...that prize of all prizes...a copy of this month's "Handbook for Egyptian Maidens - from 2 to 12". We shall always welcome criticism and news. Follow these instructions carefully in sending in any complaint...Using 8x10 paper make 15 carbon copies at 65 words per line, and put them at various places where the staff can be reached...The American Legion, Daughter's of the French-Indian War, and the neighborhood bars, or if you desire you can come directly to our offices in Alaska. Hold dear to your heart our slogan, which shall ring down through the annals of Armstrong's history.

If it's now..that's news...If it's interesting...it's a mistake...If it's true...we copied it. Remember tell your friends, you forgot where you read it. Read on!!

BEAR WITH US

About four days ago we, the staff, were given short notice that our mimeographed paper was to run off the press and be on the stands by Monday, January 20. We hastily racked our brains and physical patience to get something on black and white. This, the first edition of the new Inkwell Bulletin, is our result.

Yes, we laughed at the mistakes we made. Granted, they are numerous. But consider, and we ask you to be patient in doing so, the inexperience of this staff in working on mimeographed publications. However, the news will be up-to-date, and the paper of value to the students as it's name implies.

As the school quarter rolls on we will endeavor to improve upon quality as well as quantity. As for the present, we ask you once more, Bear With Us when you laugh!

treasurer. It was further decided that the Constitution of the club be amended to the effect that each member of the club be compelled to abide by the laws set up in the Constitution--under threat of exclusion from the club. Prior to this new bill the law of the Constitution was left up to the individual. Consequently the club has not been powerful or had much to do with what goes on around Armstrong.

It was also decided at this meeting that the club support all school activities, the basketball team and any other program that is offered for the benefit of Armstrong Students.

Among the many activities that the Vet's Club will sponsor throughout the year is the Saint Patrick's Costume Ball which will be given the Friday before Saint Patrick's Day. Applewhite's orchestra will play--admission--$1.50. More information will be released later along with plans for a "Sadie Hawkins" Day.

IT IS ALLEGED....

So the no one will be left in the dark about the why's and wherefore's of the students at dear old A. J. C. we have a little enlightening reading. Ding, Dong,-- That is the sound of wedding bells heard round the school for those who have lately entered the field of matrimony and those who will take that wonderful step in the near future. One of the happy couples around school is the Emmett Stevens (Emmett's a good cook). Well, neither of them look hungry. Love is a wonderful thing.

Jack D. has bought himself a service station. Has Joan made him hear the distant pool of wedding bells?

Those bells seem to have made a loud noise in the ears of Alan Beale and he got himself engaged. Congratulations, Mary!

What is it that our little girl fro Va. has over other girls at AJC? Can't the rest of you girls say "Yaw'll Yell." Ah! These south Virginia girls.

Alan: "Since I met yo, I can't eat, sleep, or drink."

Lyn: "Why?"

Alan: "I'm broke."

Sally and Ham seem to be seeing eye to eye on more than just philosophy.

Kitty G. seems to have B. Thrope all sewed up but she seems to have had a wonderful time Friday nite (with Frankie).

WANTED: A lease to keep Agnes on. Ed Yates

So "Red" kept on t ll you finally caught him, huh, Tilly?? Why quit school if wedding bells aren't o ring 'til summer.

Bob: "Say you're a nice-look ing girl."

Jo: "Oh you'd say so even if you didn't think so."

Bob: "Yes, and you'd think so even if I didn't say so."

Polly Wise led the AJC girls basketball team to a 33-19 victory Friday night over Savannah High. Polly scored a total of 22 points which broke the record formerly held by Dot Linton with 20 points for one game. Carolyn Royce put in a outstanding game in the guard position.

Although the girls have not had the same good fortune in the number of wins as the boys. They have played good basketball for eight straight games. With the reorganization of the City League the AJC girls are in third place, winning one and losing one.

In the total points record for the season thus far Polly Wise leads with 89 points; Dot DeVore is next with 46 points; Flip Kandle with 31 points; and Betty Walsh follows up with 9 points.

Armstrong plays Georgia Teachers College tonite on our home court at Hunter field. The game is scheduled to begin at 8:00. Buses leave Broughton and Bull for Hunter Field at 6:30 and 7:30 PM.

The Teachers have a fast playing team and have given their opponent a great deal of trouble this season. The Teacher's coach expressed the opinion his team would have little trouble after the Mercer game. As that he lost his first game to Armstrong with a cold team but they wouldn't be caught with their guard down a second time.

The AJC quintet took the last game against GMC in Milledgeville by the score of 41-22. Blake has left the squad on Dr. orders but will take the duties of an assistant coach. Coach Torrie also stated that the boys looked a little ragged playing in their new positions but expected teamwork to be greatly improved against the Teachers.

In the GMC game, Bud Fontz was high scorer with 13 points and displayed a superb game of floorwork. Chick McGarvey was next in scoring position with 10 points. Piggie Bends scored 6 and Jack Wiley with 4. Kiley suffering with stomach cramps did not play in first half.

DISEASE PREVENTION

Kiss me once, Kiss me twice, and kiss me once again...and again. It may be rugged duty, but it's healthful.

New York's Bureau of Disease Prevention has been digging up the low down on kissing's dangers to health. It finds that footloose germs are wasting their time when two experts of the osculatory art get together, since the introduction of a few germs at a time actually leads to a sort of immunity to disease. Kissing builds up resistance...to germs.

be started among the college alumni, and other citizens of the community.

when Mary Johnson was invited for the first time to visit some distant relatives, their lovely country home fulfilled her greatest expectations. She was given a room overlooking the garden and prepared to retire in a glow of satisfaction. Her room was filled with a glow of a full moon.

Just as she was about to climb in bed she was startled by the sound of gravel hitting her window. Curious, she went to the window and to her amazement saw a man beneath her window. He pointed a bony finger at her. He was hideous, his face was a dried parchment of skin. A scar circled his left cheek, he had a beaked nose. He spoke in sepulchral tones. "Someone waits below for you," he said. As she recoiled he disappeared.

The girl slept little that night and on the next day convinced herself that she had merely had a nightmare.

However, the next night the horrible experience was repeated.

The girl was so frightened that on the next morning she trumped up some excuse to her hosts and left immediately for home. Upon arrival there she told her doctor the story. He persuaded her she was the victim of hallucinations, laughed at her terror and dismissed her.

As the doors of the elevator opened for her to depart and she was about to squeeze her way in she heard a familiar voice. "Someone waits for you below!" it called. Speechless she stared at the operator. He was the man of the night before who had pointed at her. She saw his dried, parched face, the lucid scar, the beaked nose. She drew back in horror and screamed... The elevator door banged shut.

A few minutes later the whole building shook. The elevator that had gone on without her had plunged sixteen stories to the ground. Everyone in it, of course, had been crushed to a pulp.

Two drunks were standing on a street corner when a nude woman passed by.

First Drunk: "Shey, did you see that?"

Second Drunk: "(sic) Sure."

First Drunk: "Boy, how'd you like to see that in a sweater?"

AJC PLAY GENERALS

GIRLS FINISH LEAGUE STALLIONS DEFEATS GEECHEES; 47-44

Last Thursday the "Geechee" girls wound up their court season by losing to the Candler's Nurses by a score of 53-21, at the Richard Arnold Gym. High scorers for the girls were, Polly Wise with 13 points, and Dot Devere with 12. This game wound up the girls city league, with the Candler Nurses and the Union Bag girls to be in the play off in the near future.

The Armstrong Junior College "Geechees" will take the court to-night against the strong Oliver General Hospital team of Augusta, Georgia. The game will be played at the Hunter Field Gym at 8 o'clock; the admission price will be, students 50 cents and adults $1.10.

The local quintet defeated the soldiers by 20 points in one of the best played games of the season. The "Generals" are expected to be one of the toughest opponents the "Geechees" will meet this season.

Before a small but eager group of Armstrong rooters, the AJC eagers dropped a very exciting game to Abraham Baldwin Agriculture College last Friday, February 14, at the Hunter Field Gym. The "Geechees" shot ahead in the opening minutes of play by four points. The Tifton quintet overcame and held the lead until after the half. Armstrong surged into the lead again with a six point lead. In the last few minutes of play A.B.C. took the lead, when eight straight fouls were called against the 'JC boys, and held it until the final whistle. The final score being 47-44. High scorers for the "Geechees" were "Buu" Fontz and "Figgie" Bands with 12 points each.
